5 MATTERS RAISED BY LOCAL RESIDENTS

The Parish Meeting could discuss all parish affairs and pass resolutions as appropriate. The Parish Council would be obliged to consider such resolutions at its next meeting, but not necessarily to approve them [(S.9(1) Local Government Act 1972)].

Local residents who were registered electors had been encouraged to participate throughout the meeting but were now given the opportunity to raise specific matters of concern.

- School poster competition to be organised to give publicity to the Neighbourhood Plan process.
- No Internet connection on the Willowbrook Grange estate. Councillor Edgar undertook to make enquiries about this matter and raise it with Edward Timpson, MP.

No other matters were raised and the Chairman declared the meeting closed.

The meeting commenced at 7.00 pm and concluded at 7.15 pm
